

The Way Forward

It is within this context that J&C Pacific is realigning its corporate mission and objectives in charting its future roadmap.

With the launch of the J&C Pacific Malaysian Independent Business Owner (MIBO) Programme, J&C Pacific will focus its energy towards the improvement of wealth and lives of Malaysians by sharing the J&C Pacific success experience in the ICT business. Through this programme, J&C Pacific will transform its role from a principle airtime owner or distributor into an aggregator as part of its vision for the betterment of live for all and contribute towards nation building.

Through the MIBO programme, J&C Pacific's mission is to ultimately improve the connectivity and ICT competence of Malaysians by offering a wide range of ICT products and services.
